Tate Modern Photo Project Purple Class

All this year, schools across London are taking part in a very special learning project. This project is led by globally renowned artist, Steve McQueen, with the Tate gallery, Artangel and the educational charity A New Direction.

Every Year 3 class across the capital has been invited to take part in one of the largest group portraits ever made and to see their class photograph among thousands of others in a vast exhibition at the prestigious Tate Britain in central London.

Our school is delighted to be a part of this and is excited about seeing our Year 3 class photograph become part of one of the most compelling British artworks of our time. As part of the project, a photographer from Tate came into school to take a class photograph of our Year 3 class today.
