Allotments - Orange Class

Year 1 are enjoying their fortnightly visits to the allotments which support their Science learning. Recently they enjoyed harvesting vegetables and working in the outdoor classroom.

Drumming Concert - Turquoise Class

Year 3 gave a wonderful performance this week to Key Stage 2 children and their parents. They shared their singing and drumming from their 10 week project with Sandra and Michael from Southwark Music Hub.

Christmas Afternoon

On Thursday 12th December from 2pm we will be hosting a Christmas Fair style afternoon in the playground. Please see separate letter for more details.

Wooster & Stock, a local estate agent, are sponsoring the event and have said if you are looking to up-size and put your home on the market within 5 months of the fair and choose them as your preferred agent they will donate £250 to SMMS.

Greenhive Care Home School Council

School Council visited Greenhive Care Home on their open day. They made friendship bracelets for the residents, played dominoes and collaborated on art activities. The residents and staff were very impressed with our children's maturity and compassion.

Children in Need

Grand total raised
£420

Collective Worship Turquoise Class

Year 3 led a great Collective Worship session this week on God's Global Goal 15: Life on Land. They told us about what they had learned about deforestation and encouraged us to show more compassion for our world by using less plastics.

Core Value = Compassion Bible verse of the week

'Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.'

Ephesians 4:32
